NOW IN NEW QUARTERS

Alexandria Community Service at Southeast Corner of Prince and Royal Streets

Alexandria Community Service has made a start by renting the smaller Elks building on the corner of Prince and Royal streets and these quarters are already available for those men who wish to drop in to rest awhile, play a game of pool or write a letter to home or sweetheart.

Although not yet fully equipped for the purpose, there is a good fire going, some chairs to sit down on; tables and writing materials so that none need to go away dissatisfied. Get your buddy, when you have no better place to go and come around to the Community Service Center, pull your chairs up to the stove and tell over again the stories you like to tell about your service with Uncle Sam, not only for your own pleasure but for others you will find here.

The center will be open from 9 o'clock in the morning until midnight, so that you will always find the Community Center latch string hanging out.

Come in and see our arrangements, and perhaps you can offer a suggestion for their improvement in line with something that may have interested you in some center elsewhere. Not only are the men in uniform and the discharged men free to make this their center, but the other young men about town who would enjoy the narratives and stories told by the men of the service. This is the Alexandria men's Community Center.

WILL INSIST ON THE INJUNCTION

Government Will Not Entertain Gompers' Proposal

MORE MINERS AT WORK

Assistant Attorney General Says There Can be no Abandonment, as Strike is Unlawful.

The government cannot accept the proposal of organized labor to end the coal strike by vacating the injunction against the officials of the United Mine Workers of America Assistant Attorney General Ames, in the absence of Attorney General Palmer, announced yesterday that the government could not abandon its position because the strike was in violation of law.

Judge Ames issued the following statement:

"The strike is a violation of law. As long as it continues, we are going to proceed in the courts. The dispute between the mine owners and workers is an entirely different question that they can settle in their own way. The government cannot tolerate continued violation of the law such as this strike constitutes.'

Labor leaders here who had taken a hopeful view of the strike situation after hearing of Samuel Gompers' suggestion for a settlement, were plainly disturbed by news that the Department of Justice would let the injunction stand. All agreed that it would keep the strike going for some time. This also was the view of operators.

Representatives of the mine workers, counting hopefully on the early end of court proceedings, were figuring on actual steps to adjust differences at scale committee meetings. As indicating the desire for peace, the miners' agents thought it would be unnecessary for the joint conference to be held under the auspices of the Department of Labor, their idea being that the two sides could meet exactly as they did at Buffalo and Philadelphia before rejection of demands led to issuance of the strike order.

Refusal of the government to vacate the injunction means a long fight in the coal fields, while its withdrawal would have opened the way for a settlement of the strike within 48 hours, according to Edgar Wallace, legislative representative of the United Mine Workers of America.

"If the injunction were withdrawn the scale committees representing miners and operators could get together in 4 hours and settle their differences at one sitting.' Wallace said. "The strike, however, would not be called off until a new wage agreement was reached."

The miners' committee, with power to accept the new agreement, could call off the strike without referring the question to a delegate convention, Wallace said.

DRY LAW AN INVASION

Government Ought Not Take State's Powers, Says Judge

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 6.—United States District Judge John C. Pollock, of Topeka, yesterday indicated that he will decide in favor of the application of St. Louis brewers for an injunction to restrain Federal officials from enforcing the wartime prohibition measure.

At the hearing on the application today, Judge Pollock said that the Federal government has no right to step in and determine what is to be done regarding the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor if there is any State government left.

"I assert that the government has no power to step in and assume police power or take it away from the State," said Judge Pollock, "When it is necessary to wage war, that may be all right, but unless it is on that ground I don't see that it is necessary."

At another point in the hearing, Judge Pollock asked Attorney Houts for the brewers.

"Why has the State taken no steps to protect United States property rights?"

"I don't know," Houts answered.

"The States should wake up," the judge declared, "otherwise they will have everything taken away from them."

Judge Pollock yesterday obtained a verbal pledge from District Attorney Henly that no more arrests will be made and no more informations filed here for alleged violations of the war time provisions of the Volstead prohibition enforcement measure until he has made a decision in the application of the St. Louis brewers for an injunction against the Federal officials.

INITIATE 662 AT SINGLE MEETING

Governor Davis and Attorney-General Among Number Taken in

ADDRESSES ARE MADE

First Degree to be Given by Abou Ben Adhem Lodge on November 17, Second and Third Degree Later.

Celebrating the one hundredth anniversary of the formation of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, 662 new members were given the initiatory degree at a joint meeting of the Richmond lodges last night at the Jefferson Hotel.

Governor Westmoreland Davis, Attorney-General John R. Saunders, William M. Myers, Director of Public Safety; Ordway Puller, chairman of the Streets Committee of the City Council, and many other prominent Richmond men were among the number initiated.

This is said to be the largest number of men ever initiated into any fraternity in the South at one time.

Since August 15 the Independent Order of Odd Fellows has been conducting a membership drive, which was to end on December 1. Owing to large number of applicants it was found necessary to stop taking applications until an initiation meeting could be held.

After the degree had been conferred short addresses were made by Governor Davis, Past Grand Master W. Ross Southard, Grand Master Guy T. Horner, of the Grand Lodge of Virginia; the department grand sire, J. Oliver, of Toronto, Canada, and Dr. John Lee Allison, of Alexandria, who is grand chaplain of Virginia.

The initiation last night was in charge of the degree team of Patrick Henry Lodge of Richmond, No. 116, and was under the direction of Captain John H. Dickerson, degree master from the same lodge.

On November 17 the class will be given the first degree at the Jefferson Hotel Auditorium. At that tim the ceremony will be in charge of Abou Ben Adhem Lodge, No. 210.

On November 28 both the second and third degrees will be given the candidates. Henderson Lodge, of Richmond, known as No. 105, will officiate in the second degree and Fitzhugh Lodge No. 93, in the third degree.

Officials declared last night that it was necessary to keep the meeting last night a secret until the last moment because of the number of Odd Fellows who would have probably attended. There are 3,500 members of the order in Richmond, it was stated, and 35,000 members in Virginia.

CRIES DOWN HECKLERS

Virginia Beauty Proves To British Voters That She Won't Stand "Sass"

Plymouth, England, Nov.6.—The Viscountess Astor waxed almost proletarian in her campaign speech here Tuesday night, but in the end American "pep" triumphed over attempts of hecklers to break up the meeting and the Viscountess, somewhat ruffled, came through a winner in the first clash of her fight for her husbands former seat in the House of Commons.

"Don't give me any of your sass," the candidate shouted vigorously to rowdies who tried to interrupt her speech. "If you don't quit, I'll come right down to you. I've handled soldiers for five years and I know how to handle your kind, too."

The meeting started peaceably enough, but before Lady Astor kas well into her subject a number of rowdies began buring questions at her, keeping up a continuous fire, so that the former Virginia beauty had little chance to answer. But it didn't take long for Lady Astor's American temper to arise and she quieted the hecklers by literally outtalking them.

The Viscountess declared when she got into Commons she wouldn't "just talk and yapp," but would get things done.

"I didn't enter this campaign for a joy ride," Lady Astor shouted.

Before her main speech the candidate addressed a meeting of women. There were numerous interruptions, but she replied vigorously to all.

MOUNT VERNON

Ways and means of making Mt. Vernon a government instituiton and opening it to the public without charge will be considered by a special committee of the Washington Chamber of Commerce.

At the last meeting of the board of directors the matter was brought up and the board went on record as favoring the purchase of the estate by the government. Another phase which the committee will consider will be the opening of the estate on Sundays.

Half a century or more ago the late David Turner, at that time publishing a paper in this city known as "The Commonwealth," labored assiduously in a movement for the opening of Mount Vernon to the public. He favored government ownership and free admission, and the opening of the grounds on Sundays. Later, after the steamer "Mary Washington" built especially to run from Washington and Alexandria to Mount Vernon, had been put into commission, the late William H. Snowden, the sage of Arcturas, wrote numerous articles for the Gazette in which he urged the bringing about of conditions corresponding to those which the Washington Chamber of Commerce is now championing.

Mr. Snowden had toured Europe several years before, and he directed attention to the fact that the sepulchres of the great in the old world are open to the public without money and without price every day, Sundays not excepted.

One beautiful Sunday years ago we entered the Hotel des Invalides in Paris and locked down upon the sarcophagos of the First Napoleon. We thought then, as we gazed upon the surging crowd in the rotunda that no good reason can be urged why Americans, millions of whom have no holiday but Sunday, should not be allowed to visit the tomb of the Father of the Country on that day and without cost.

DEATH IN THE CUP

Two dead women, faces bloated, finger tips blue; nearly three half gallon jugs that had held home made wine, three bottles that had contained new whisky, one pan of wood alcohol and two little girls who wept and wondered was one of Chicago's gruesome pictures yesterday.

During the past year several Alexandrians have died and others have been brought dangerously near the other world from using certain concoctions designed as substitutes for intoxicants. Numbers have been ruined for life in one way or another, but notwithstanding these awful reminders the good work is still going on.

When the police make raids upon suspicious places they cannot always find whisky, but they capture liquids which enter into the composition of potions calculated to destroy the most robust physiques. Wood alcohol is an essential in the preparation of dangerous liquids. This is always found in amateur distilleries.

The item printed above should prove a terrible warning to dipsomaniacs who persist in risking their health and lives by using preparations the formula of which is a mystery to them.

UNIONS VS. LAW

Mr. Palmer says that the government will proceed against the miners as long as the strike shall continue. Mr. Gompers wants the government to place law subordinate to the unions and have the law retire before the unions shall consent to arbitrate.

"But," as says the Baltimore American, "the injunction that was issued to make the miners realize that union rules and decrees are but straws in comparison with the iron of American law will continue to operate it as it has been doing, to bring the outlaws to their senses. Every true American smarts under the sting of being called an outlaw and a criminal. That is what four hundred thousand find to be their status through the action of a bull-headed and pugnacious leader, who said that he would show the government what the miners could do. The only road to peace is retirement from the strike. Then the miners will find that the government that placed them under its ban will lift the ban and will prepare a program for consideration by a board of arbitration whose decrees neither side would dare disregard.

"The issue of law or the union was a silly one to raise, a mischievous one and one that has done the unions great harm. But the government is not fighting unions; it is fighting outlaws."

THANKSGIVING DAY

President Wilson has issued a proclamation setting aside Thursday, November 27, as a day of Thanksgiving and prayer. Under present conditions, while all may not sit in sackcloth and ashes, it goes without saying that many will not be in positions to enjoy the genial warmth of stoves on Thanksgiving Day 1919.

Movements looking towards making November 11, anniversary of the signing of the armistice, a holiday have met with little response, as it was known the President would set apart the fourth Thursday in the month as Thanksgiving Day, and no good reason was apparent why we should have two holidays so close together.

Next Tuesday will be the first anniversary of the capitulation of Germany and abdication of the Kaiser. There had been a false alarm on the seventh of the month, when the announcement was made that the Huns had signed the armistice. Joy and thanksgiving instantly spread as a wave over the country. This, however, was short-lived, as later news showed that while the Teutons were on the verge of throwing up the sponge, they had reached the end of their rope, and that surrender was but a few hours away. Four days later they accepted the inevitable.

The United States and her allies had been the victors over the proud and haughty Germans. Instead of the people of this country showing their appreciation of the God of war, who had permitted Victory to perch upon our banners, by rushing into the channels of civic employment and vieing in the work of reconstruction, the fact is apparent that our country has been in domestic turmoil ever since the sword was returned to the scabbard.

Our long blessed nation is now in the throes of labors wars, the sons of toil treating with contempt the laws of the land. How long are such conditions to disgrace the land of the free and the home of the brave?

BARBER DEFIES STRIKE

Invites Customers to Shave Themselves When Men Walk Out.

Baltimore, Nov. 6.—One barber shop, at least, thinks it has found a way to circumvent the striking barbers who, to the number of about 150, went out yesterday. He is going to let his patrons shave themselves and he says he can make money on it.

Paul Schroeder, the lone barber left in a downtown hotel shop, seemed to glean pleasure rather than pain from his unique situation. He had been in the army and had learned to take life philosophically.

"I used to make $35 a day in the army cutting hair at 25 cents," he said, "and if this strike keeps up, I will do better than that at the increased prices. I have lined the shaving mugs along the counter, and when customers come in I invite them to shave themselves. It is pretty soft for me. They are glad to try a personally conducted shave and to pay me the usual price for it. If I don't clean up $50 a day, I will be a disappointed man."

The walkout came after master barbers had refused to sign a working agreement calling for a guarantee of $25 a week and half of all receipts in excess of $35 a week.

Besides the wage scale the proposed agreement contains the following planks:

A 10-hour day, with an hour for lunch. Journeymen to begin work not earlier than 7.30 a. m. and to work not later than 8 p. m.

THE COAL DIFFICULTIES

Proposal by Representative Burke of Coal Region Would Have President Operate Property

Government operation of the coal mines for one year or as much longer as may be necessary for the public good was proposed in Congress yesterday as a solution of the complicated strike situation.

The proposal was made in a resolution introduced by Representative Burke, of Pittsburg. It directs the President to take over and operate the mines, effect a satisfactory wage and working agreement with the miners, and to sell the coal at actual cost to the public plus a reasonable return to the mine owners.

In its general idea, that of government settlement of coal difficulties, the resolution is in accord with a growing conviction in governmental circles, that even if the injunction against the miners' leaders is made permanent, coal troubles will not be at an end, and that the government will have to work out the problem.

All the developments yesterday tend toward the conclusion that a deadlock exists and that there is little hope for bringing the miners and the mine operators together for negotiations before Saturday when the government's application for a permanent injunction will be argued in Indianapolis.

HARRISONBURG REPUBLICAN

Capt. John Paul Beats G. N. Conrad for State Senate

Harrisonburg, Va., Nov. 6.—Capt. John Paul, Republican, during the war an officer in the American Expeditionary Forces, yesterday defeated Senator George N. Conrad, Democrat, for State Senator from Rockingham county and the city of Harisonburg by a majority of 322. The Republicans also elected both their candidates to the House of Delegates, these being Prof. J. A. Garber and Captain W. H. Ruebush.

RESULT IN MARYLAND

Nice Refuses to Concede Ritchie's Election—Assembly in Doubt

Baltimore, Nov. 6.—Harry W. Nice, Republican nominee for governor refused yesterday morning to concede to Maryland Democrats the election of his opponent, Albert C. Ritchie, although the figures at midnight seemed to give the latter a margin of 1,800 votes.

The race for places in the State Assembly also appeared to be in doubt.

LEMON JUICE TAKES OFF TAN

Girls! Make bleaching lotion if skin is sunburned, tanned or freckled

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle, sunburn and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of Orchard White for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles, sunburn, windburn, and tan disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.

LABOR RESERVATION BEATEN

Proposal Goes Down by Opposition of 34 Democrats and 13 Republicans

The La Follette amendment to strike from the peace treaty all the provisions for the internationalization of labor was defeated yesterday by the Senate, 34 to 47. Twenty-nine Republicans and five Democrats voted for the amedment, and thirty-four Democrats and thirteen Republicans against it.

Before the vote was taken, Senator James A. Reed, of Missouri, in a three hour speech warned the Senate that the provisions in the treaty "were born in the minds of international Socialists, anarchists and Bolshevists, who are seeking thus to implant their infamous doctrines upon the United States."

Senator Reed declared that if the Senate struck the provisions from the treaty it would be doing the manly thing, and that failure to do so would be an act of cowardice.

EFFECTS OF THE STRIKE

Passenger Service Curtailed to Give Coal to Homes

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Beginning of curtailed railroad service and the pinch of inadequate supplies of soft coal in several States yesterday marked the fifth days of the miners' strike. So far as the strike itself was concerned, there was little change, although operators in West Virginia and Colorado reported gains in production.

The principal developments were the following:

Removal of six passenger trains from service of the Chicago and Northwestern and the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroads.

Appeals for coal have been made by several Nebraska towns to the State railway commission.

LABOR'S DEMAND

Gompers Says the Eight Hour Day Must be Adopted as Standard

An ultimatum that labor of America and of the world will not work more than eight hours a day and not more than forty-four hours a week, was laid before the International Conference at a long and stormy session in Washington yesterday afternoon, by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor.

"We want the eight hour day, and we want the Saturday half-holiday," Gompers declared, "and when we say the eight hour day, we say it as the maximum work day."

BROKE CANES ON HER BACK

Brooklyn, Nov. 6.—Mrs. Florence Holly, who promised to offer in evidence two canes which she said were broken over her back by her husband, Herbert Holly, was yesterday awarded alimony of $300 a month and $300 counsel fee by Justice Benedict in the Supreme Court.

Mrs. Holly brought suit for separation and claimed that her husband, who is widely known in the insurance business and in club circles, was extravagant in providing for himself and neglectful of his family. He beat her on numerous occasions, she alleged, and was so violet that he broke two canes in the operation. Mrs. Holly declared she will offer the broken canes in evidence at the trial.

WOMEN'S SCANTY GARB

Port Chester, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Because of the scanty garb of several young society women participating in a fashion parade given for the benefit of the Port Chester tuberculosis fund, Rev. Harry B Heald, rector of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, yesterday asked that his name be erased from the list of patrons.

High ideals and moral standards, said the clergyman, are being lowered and the tendency toward extremes in dress which are both immodest and immoral are an evidence of this.

DRUG MEN WALK OUT

New York, Nov. 6.—Demanding $50 a week for licensed pharmacists and an increase in wages of approximately 35 per cent for all other employes in the 3,300 drug stores in this city, in which union men are employed, 4,000 drug pharmacists, drug clerks, soda dispensers and others struck this morning at 6 o'clock.

BUTCHERS DENY DEMAND

New York, Nov. 6.—Butchers' Union, No. 211, of Brooklyn, in a signed statement protests that the drivers would not receive $245.50 a week, as announced by the newspapers, should the butchers' strike prove successful. The figure would be but $145.50 a week, not $245.50, they say.

BARRETT RETIRES

Director General John Barrett, of the Pan American Union, yesterday afternoon announced his desire and intention to retire from his position as executive officer, after fourteen years of continuous service, to the governing board, when it assembled for its first autumn meeting. His resignation will take effect at the end of the fiscal year June 30, 1920.

"Why I Put Up With Rats for Years." Writes N. Windsor, Farmer.

"Years ago I bought some rat poison, which nearly killed our fine watch dog. It so scared us that we suffered a long time with rats until my neighbor told me about RAT-SNAP. That's the sure rat killer and a safe one." Three sizes 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold and guaranteed by R. E. Knight and Son Alexandria; Mankin's Store, Falls Church.

SAVES HUSBAND'S MONEY

Hanging, Kicking and Beating do Not Bring Secret of Hoard From Woman

Pottsville, Pa., Nov. 6.—Because Mrs. Jacob Kanoky, of Greenbury, refused to tell a burglar where her husband's savings of $600 were, the man tried to hang her with a wire rope. He failed, but left her bound and gaged with a dozen dangerous weunds.

After gagging Mrs. Kanoky, the burglar searched the house getting 85 cents, although the $600 of the husband's savings were within his reach. The burglar was a former boarder and knew the money was in the house. Her husband was away at work.

Mrs. Kanoky is in a serious condition from the kicking and beating and other methods of torture which the man applied to make her tell the whereabouts of the money. State police are on the man's track.
